COLUMBIA SAILING

Fall 2026

FIRST PLACE AT IOR

From left to right: Selen Yasanliel ('30), Tobias Wever ('28), Andrew Sparks ('27), Jake Miller ('27), Elizabeth Frost ('27), Eva DeCastro ('28), Alexander Ching ('28), Paul Beaudin

Our lions experienced a wide range of conditions during the Long Island Sound Intercollegiate Offshore Regatta hosted by Storm TrySail and LYC on Oct 10-11. From gentle breezes and clear skies to stormy gusts and 4-foot swells, we navigated it all with the help of Paul Beaudin, the owner of Loulou and our safety officer on board. We were able to walk away with not only 1st place in our J/105 division, but also the Paul Hoffman Trophy as overall champions! We are so grateful for all of the staff, volunteers, coaches, and especially Paul Beaudin for the opportunity and support to compete in this regatta and we look forward to defending our title next year!

ATLANTIC COAST CHAMPIONSHIP

Eva DeCastro ('28) and Amelia Thomas ('27) at Accs Round 1b

On another exciting note, after a historic 7th-place finish at Women's ACC's round 1B on October 3-4 at Bowdoin College, our women's team qualified for ACC Finals! This is the first time in recorded history that the team has qualified for ACC Finals, and is a pivotal moment for the Lions, as it puts us in the company of the top 18 women's teams across the country.

On Oct 17-18, the Lions competed in the finals held at St. Mary's College in Maryland and placed 17th. The windy conditions proved difficult, with 5 capsizes and 10 races in one day, but we're still so proud to have the opportunity to compete with these teams and look forward to more championships to come!
